

ANNAPOLIS SUMMER CAMP LEAD EDUCATOR 2021

The Annapolis Maritime Museum & Park (AMM) educates youth and adults about maritime heritage and the ecology of the Chesapeake Bay. Through our popular summer day camp, children enjoy playing in the woods and water, discovering more about our local maritime heritage, and become inspired environmental stewards. Come join our team!

AMM seeks contractual Lead Educators for its summer camp. This position is ideal for individuals who are passionate about leading youth, possess a love for the outdoors, and have prior summer camp and/or environmental education experience. Successful applicants will be organized, motivated, responsible, and ready to have fun!

AMM summer camp runs from June 21st through September 3rd. Lead Educators will work 40 hours a week, from 8:30-4:30pm M-F. Compensation for this position is $15/hour.

Educator Responsibilities:

- Lead a group of up to 18 campers (K-5) through daily activities including environmental education programming, outdoor exploration, games, crafts, kayaking, etc.
 - Ensure children's safety, manage behavior, and act as a role model and mentor
- Manage all aspects of AMM's day camps including daily set up and clean up and material management
 - Ensure the site is kept clean and organized
 - Communicate with Camp Director regarding concerns, challenges, and camper experiences
 - Communicate with and manage counselors and volunteers
 - Maintain accurate program records including health logs and daily attendance
 - Learn, understand, and implement camp emergency policies

Skills and Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree (Environmental Sciences, Education, or related field preferred)
- Demonstrated experience working with children
- Prior lesson planning experience
- Strong organizational, group, and time management skills
- Flexibility and the ability to problem solve
- High energy and enthusiasm
- Willingness to work outside in all weather conditions
- Ability to lift at least 25 pounds
- CPR/First Aid Certification or willingness to obtain
- Must obtain a background check

Please send a letter of interest and resume to education@amaritime.org